offered occasionally during times of celebration in our lives!

Readings are not about revealing a predetermined destiny. It's not about lifting curses or meddling with other people's choices. And it's not necessarily about gloomy omens or impending doom!

Readings are powerful empowerment tool for confident decision making & communication., anchored in evocative symbols that trigger emotional reactions (our subconscious minds KNOW these symbols and what they represent!) By tuning into those intuitive impulses, we can unravel multiple courses of action, and actively create a game plan for your ideal future.

Symbolic readings are about giving you personal clarity - shining a light through your mental fog, so you can make emotional, and mental and spiritually intelligent choices for your love life, family, business, and for every life-pivoting decision along the path.

Tarot & Tea FAQ'S

Where did you get your abilities to read ?

I have read for many years prior to additional certifications from Deborah A. Bourbon. And Lunar Wisdom. My abilities are God/Goddess given. Everyone has "psychic ability" to some degree (just ask any mother who has "hunches") :-). I am just tapping into universal energy and giving insight to those who need it.

How accurate are you?

In my person experience, psychics are about 75% accurate. NO reader, no matter how famous they are or how accurate they claim to be, can read for everyone! There is always room for misinterpretation and no reader can possibly know everything. So please remember, if you don't like something said in your reading, you CAN change the outcome. You are the master of your own destiny. Avoid readers who make you feel otherwise.

Are you ever unable to answer a question?

Yes. At times a person may ask a question, but sometimes the answer is not available. And there are times when a question may not have a black and white answer. But even if an answer is not present, I will tell you "I don't know" but will try to give you any information I do receive around what you are asking.

What types of client do you serve?

On this journey called life I have worked with clients from all paths—from CEO's to geriatric care givers (which I want to give a bit shout out of THANK YOU for your service)! If you want an up front no nonsense approach, then you are at the right place... if you feel like a victim of everyone around you (its all their fault), then I am not the reader for you.. I believe in the power of tarot to empower my clients. If you have a closed mind and are expecting me to do "parlor tricks" such as reading your mind, then please seek other services.

What is the best way to ask a question?

Be as specific as possible unless you are seeking general information. Be respectful and don't play games with your questions by asking it 4 different ways.

Privacy Policy / Ethics

I am here to serve my client's needs.

I treat everyone with equal respect, regardless of race, religion, gender or orientation.

I represent myself and my abilities with honesty and integrity. I believe your future is in your hands and you have free will and the ability to change anything you do not like in the reading.

I do not solve crimes, pick lottery numbers or locate lost items. I do not predict death dates nor try to diagnose illness. I am not a medium—meaning I do not talk to the dead. If you think you are pregnant, take a pregnancy test as it is more accurate than a reading 99%.

I only offer readings every three months as a general rule. Unless extenuating circumstances are presented to me. If I perceive you are addictive, I will refuse to read you. I do not encourage addiction to psychics—you are always in charge of your own life and I am merely a conduit to the choices that are around you.

As a general rule (Not always) I do not do reversed card readings—

I do not answer questions on sports, gambling, criminal activity, or dates of death.

I do not do readings on anyone under the age of 18 without a parent present.

*I have a VERY strict no-show policy. If you do not show up for your appointment & do not call me, you will be charged for the appointment. If you are a habitual no-show, you will not be allowed to come back as a client. I require a 24 hour notice if you need to re-schedule or cancel. It takes only 1 MINUTE to contact me. I expect you to extend the same courtesy to me that you would to your doctor, lawyer, hairdresser? Understand that when you do not show or call at the last minute, I can not make that time available for another client—so please be as respectful of my time as I am of yours... Blessings!

As a matter of policy, I reserve the right to refuse service for any reason. Please do not take it personally if I refuse to serve you. My Mission is for my client to have a great experience—however at times there may be situations where I may not be a good fit for a client - If I feel I cannot work with you I am always happy to offer a referral for someone who may be a better fit for you.
